

ST PETER'S HILL NEWSLETTER

MAY 2011

Dear Member

So, here we go again, to quote Cole Porter – “Another Opening, Another Show”! Next week sees our offering of Fly Me To The Moon at the Guildhall Arts Centre running, from Wednesday 11th May to Saturday 14th May.

Rehearsals have been great fun and everyone has worked really hard to put a worthy production in place. Martin Olley has enjoyed his first outing as Director and has pulled it all together brilliantly. I’m sure he’ll be eager to direct again soon!! There are no more rehearsals apart from technical rehearsal on Monday and dress rehearsal on Tuesday, then its opening night and take off!

Just one or two appeals:

- Help with “get in” on Sunday. Anyone who is able, please turn up on Sunday morning to help get the set ready.
- Front of House volunteers. Please contact Tania if you’re able to help with Front of House duties – tania.lambley@hotmail.co.uk
- Raffle prizes. Again, please contact Tania with your raffle prizes or bring them along Sunday or Monday.

Many thanks.

A very big thank you to Martin Olley, his cast and crew, for all their efforts in putting on what I’m sure will be a very successful show. Please come along and support it in whatever way you can!

NEXT PRODUCTION

Our November production will be Glorious! By Peter Quilter, directed by Debbie Wartnaby. There will be a social reading of the play sometime in June, casting readings sometime in July and then rehearsals will begin in August. Play week is November 6th – November 12th.

SOCIAL EVENTS

There are a couple of social events coming up, don't forget to put them in your diary:

- June 6th – Carl Viles is hosting a social reading of The Cocktail Party by T.S.Eliot. This promises to be a very interesting evening, so be sure not to miss it!
- August 14th – Annual Garden Party. Debbie Wartnaby has volunteered to host the party, catering arrangements to be announced nearer to the day.

“THAT’S ENTERTAINMENT”

This year the Guildhall Arts Centre is celebrating 20 years of entertaining Grantham, and as part of the celebrations there is going to be a production showcasing many of the societies that have performed there since its opening. We will be contributing two ten minute pieces, one from the '90's and one from the '00's – all ideas/contributions welcome.

They are also after memorabilia from that time to display in the Centre, so if you have any photographs, old programmes or posters to share, they would be greatly appreciated.
